

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus challenges Saint Peter, the disciples and His disciples of today, to think as God does and not as human beings (cf. Matthew 16:21-27). In other words, we are to deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow Jesus. Remember, suffering is never the end. It was not God's plan. God's love is always greater than our challenges. We need to trust in such a powerful love that enables us to become selfless. When we let go of selfishness and self-centeredness and take up our cross, we begin to live and experience the freedom Christ gained for us. Let us pray . . .

*God of might, giver of every good gift, put into our hearts the love of your name,
so that, by deepening our sense of reverence, you may nurture in us what is good and,
by your watchful care,
keep safe what you have nurtured.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

Pope's Intention for September
Respect for the Planet's Resources
*That the planet's resources will not be plundered,
but shared in a just and respectful manner.
Amen.*

General Intercessions

That families will put following Jesus ahead of finances, fashion or fun when making decisions and planning their calendars. Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspectives

Today's gospel challenges families: are we living by God's standards or by human ones? Families today are assailed by a consumer culture that tells us "we are what we own". To us Jesus responds: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" Think long term and sacrifice for that which is eternal. Don't shortcut effort or short sell time with your family.
