

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time let us ask ourselves "What is the most important to look for in life?" This Sunday's Scriptures tells us to seek the Lord and wisdom. In this way we will look for what really matters in life. We will stay awake as we await the coming of the Lord. We will be always ready at any day or hour. Let us pray...

*Almighty and merciful God,
Graciously keep from us all adversity
so that, unhindered in mind and body alike, we may pursue in freedom of heart
the things that are yours.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Family Perspective

Today Jesus tell us to “Stay awake for you know neither the day nor the hour.” Family crisis are just like this. That can’t be put on our calendar like an appointment...they just happen. We must be ready and responsive to family members in need. By responding promptly with faith and hope, God will provide wisdom and strength.

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
