From the Pastor's Desk

This Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time raises the question: "When will the end be?" (Luke 21:6). Our response calls us to live in the moment with our faith focused on the Day of the Lord as imminent. In the midst of trials and troubles we are to persevere. We are to keep the faith. We are to be confident that God will never abandon us. We are not to neglect our Christian obligations. In the Day of the Lord we will be victorious. Let us pray...

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to You, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the Author of all that is good. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Collect, 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

In Your Charity

Please remember in your prayers Deacon Raphael Quiles. May Deacon Quiles and all our beloved dead live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation. Amen.

November 17, 2013
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“All that you see here -- the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down.” -Luke 21:6

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

Luke 21:5-19

"The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice." (Psalm 98)

- In what ways does your life witness to this truth?
- Are you able to totally trust God in times of adversity?
- What is your source of comfort?

What will it be like when Christ judges us and the whole world?

Even Christ cannot help someone who does not want to know anything about love; such a person judges himself. Because Jesus Christ is “the Way, the Truth, and the Life: (Jn 14:6) he will show what is of lasting value in God’s sight and what is not. Held up to the standard of his life, the full truth about all people, things, thoughts, and events will come to light. (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church) (Youcat #111)

Winter Clothing Needed

Blessings to all who have donated winter clothing to the SDVP Ozanam Center in Akron! Again, the need is great for more coats, hats, scarves, and gloves. You may bring them to church when coming to Mass on the weekend and leave them in the hall or Church vestibule. May God bless you for your help in keeping those in need warm this winter!

Catholic Military Services

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services. Your prayers and support are truly a blessing. As Catholics in a worldwide faith community, we treasure our belief that we may be continually transformed by participation in the sacraments. The Archbishop, clergy and staff of the Archdiocese thank everyone for sharing the mission through your prayerful and generous support.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next weekend, the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) will be taken. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations, and economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Please help manifest Catholic social teaching and carry out Jesus’ mission to “bring glad tidings to the poor...to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free” (Luke 4:18). Thank you in advance for your prayers and support.
