Family Perspectives

How can you live by dying? Letting go of control is one key to a loving relationship. This requires trust: trust in oneself and trust in others. If we don't let go of our need to control we don't experience the joy found in trusting ourselves to another and being completely accepted by that other. In the end we will lose what we are trying to control and hold onto – we can only have by letting go!

General Intercession

For families divided by conflict, that they might find peaceful ways to resolve differences so that the needs of all might be addressed, we pray to the Lord.

From the Pastor's Desk

This Sunday begins a more profound time of preparation for the Paschal Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil). We have been given this sacred time to enter more fully in the covenant relationship God has called us to which was sealed by Christ's life, passion, suffering, death and glorious resurrection. We too as true disciples must learn to die to our self. What does that mean? It means to bring to an end all selfishness, self-centeredness, to live a new life in Christ.

*By Your help, we beseech you, Lord our God
May we walk eagerly in that same charity
With which, out of love for the world,
Your Son handed Himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
Of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

*Collect of the 5th Sunday of Lent
From the Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

In Your Charity

Please remember in your prayers Ranee A. Baur daughter of parishioners George and Bernadine (deceased) Baur, sister of parishioners Tina (Shawn) Shaulis, aunt of parishioner Shawn Shaulis II. Remember to also pray for Irene M. Snyder, Mother-in-Law of Deacon Kevin K. McKenna. May Ranee, Irene and all our beloved deceased live forever in the joy of the Resurrection. May their families and friends be consoled. Amen.

Operation Rice Bowl Reflection

In today's first reading, the prophet Jeremiah describes a new covenant – one which is written on our hearts. As Christians, we believe that this new covenant is fulfilled in Jesus. This week through Operation Rice Bowl, we learn about malnourished children and expectant mothers in India whose health has been compromised by their poverty. We pray that we may open our hearts to the needs of the poor and vulnerable. We fast, not merely from our excess, but from our very substance, so that new life may come to all who suffer from poverty, illness and injustice. We give so that CRS-trained health care workers can help improve the lives of women and children throughout the world.

In your prayers...

Emma Aguilar, Celia Bican, Dolores Bryan, Johannah Conner, Tom Gardner, James Ging, Tayha Hostetler, Bob and Kathy James, Maureen Joyce, Mike LaMarre, Carol Leach, Marca Kaplar, Marcene, Margaret, Megan, Mark Munnings, Ashley Munoz, George Novak, Joy Rogers, Dorothy Rogus, Andrew Sanford, Theresa "Tess" Slenn, Bruce Styles, Marla Sliwinski, Hank Symanski, Phyllis Todd, Laura Tories, Sylvia Treccaso, Raymond and Margaret Wills....
