From the Pastor's Desk

On this Solemnity of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) we have a special opportunity to reflect on what has been handed down from one generation to the next since the time of the Apostles. That on the day before our Lord suffered on the cross, on the night of the Last Supper, Jesus gave Himself to us under the appearance of bread and wine. We now share at every Mass in that same sacrifice offered on Good Friday. Jesus not only left us a memorial of His Passion, but as did for the Apostles at the Last Supper, so at ever Mass He now does for us. Let us pray and give thanks...

O God, who in this wonderful Sacrament Have left us a memorial of Your Passion, Grant us, we pray,

So to revere the sacred mysteries of Your Body and Blood

*That we may always experience in ourselves
The fruits of Your redemption.*

Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

"Give them some food yourselves."

Luke 9:13

Luke 9:11b-17

You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek. (Psalm 110:4)

• Jesus says, "Give them some food yourselves." How do you provide Eucharist for one another?

• Have you ever had the experience of being unsure if you had enough, only to find that you had more than enough?
How did that feel? What did you learn?

Marriage -- It is a Sacrament

The sacrament of Matrimony comes about through a promise made by a man and a woman before God and the Church, which is accepted and confirmed by God and consummated by the bodily union of the couple. Because God himself forms the bond of sacramental Marriage, it is binding until death of one of the partners. God disposed man and woman for each other so that they might be "no longer two, but one." What threatens marriage is sin, what renews it is forgiveness, what makes it strong is prayer, and trust in God's presence. (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church) (Youcat #261)
