Read and pray the Scriptures daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

The gospel reading for the Fifth Sunday of Easter shows Jesus preparing the apostles to understand what His death means. It is love that is all unconditional and all embracing. It is how we will attain the fruit of love. It is by loving as Jesus has loved us. How will I love as Jesus has loved? What does it mean to me as a disciple?

Almighty ever-living God,
Constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us,
That those You were pleased to make new
in Holy Baptism
may, under Your protective care, bear much fruit and come to the joys of life eternal.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
Of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

In Your Charity

Please remember in your prayers, Virginia Mewhort, sister of parishioner Joan Andreoli and also Theron (T.J.) Thaden, father of The Reverend William A. Thaden. May Virginia, Theron and all our beloved dead live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation. Amen.

Congratulations to Jason and Cheryl Vlach on the baptism of their son Vincent Vaughn Vlach. Vincent, welcome to God's family!

5th Sunday of Easter

"This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

John 13:35

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

John 13:31-33a, 34-35

*"Behold, I make all things new."
(Rev 21-5)*

- The new signs of spring are all around us. What can you do to continue the process of renewal in your life?
- How will you give thanks to God this week for the many blessings of His graciousness and mercy?
- Jesus calls us to love one another. How are you called to love those who challenge you or those you find difficult to love? What's holding you back from loving them?

The trials of life, while helping us to understand the mystery of the Cross and to participate in the sufferings of Christ (cf. Col 1:24), are a prelude to the joy and hope to which faith leads: "when I am weak, then I am strong" (2 Cor 12:10). (PF15) --Robert G. Sharkey, Jr., MA

How often must a Catholic participate in the celebration of the Eucharist (Mass)?

The Catechism teaches that a Catholic Christian is obligated to attend Holy Mass on all Sundays and Holy days of obligation. Anyone who is really seeking Jesus' friendship responds as often as possible to Jesus' personal invitation to the feast. From ancient times the celebration of Mass has been the "Heart of Sunday" and the most important appointment of the week. (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church) (Youcat 219)

Turned in your Rice Bowl? Not too late to count your coins, dollars sacrificed and make a check payable to Mother of Sorrows Parish. Write "CRS Rice Bowl" in the check memo line, and place it in the collection Mass. Thank you again for your kindness and generosity!

This weekend Home Missions Appeal

Many dioceses in the US do not have enough priest and trained lay ministers to serve their parishes. These dioceses are known as home missions. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports these dioceses by funding essential ministries, including seminary education and lay ministry training. Thank you for your prayers and donation this weekend!
