From the Pastor's Desk

During this Second Week in Ordinary Time we continue Christian Unity Week of Prayer begun on Friday, January 18 and concluding on Friday, January 25, The Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. On Monday, January 21st, as we mark the birthday of Martin Luther King, Jr. let us pray for an end to racial discrimination. Tuesday marks the anniversary of the Supreme Court Decision Roe vs. Wade in 1973...let us pray for the legal protection of all unborn children, let us pray for the respect of life from conception to natural death. On this Sunday as the disciples in the Gospel account begin to believe in Jesus, may we also deepen in our faith and relationship with Christ our Lord.

*Almighty ever-living God,
Who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth,
Mercifully hear the pleading of Your people
And bestow Your peace on our times.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
Of the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Fill the jars with water.”

John 2:7

Family Perspectives

Today’s gospel recounts the story of the wedding feast at Cana. Christ is present in every marriage covenant, to bring hope and to take what is good and make it better. This is a fitting time for families to celebrate the marriages of their members, to honor their commitment and Christ’s presence in their lives and to talk positively about the vocation of Matrimony.

General Intercession

That all married couples may rejoice in their good times and find hope and fortitude in their bad times.
Let us pray to the Lord.

Sunday, January 20, 2013: John 2:1-11

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations. (Ps. 96)

- What fruits of the Spirit do you use in your daily life?
- Who is the Spirit prompting you to call forward to use their gifts?
- What types of meditations do you use in your life when you think about the fruits of the Spirit?

Is Baptism the only way to salvation?
Must one be baptized?

For all those who have received the Gospel and have heard that Christ is “the way, and the truth, and the life,” Baptism is the only way to God and salvation. That is why missionary work is so important. However, it is true that Christ died for all mankind. Therefore, all men who have had no opportunity to learn about Christ and the faith but seek God sincerely and live according to their consciences also find salvation (Baptism of Desire).
