*Read and pray
Scriptures daily!*

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time we continue to reflect on "what to do?" Last weekend's Gospel account of the parable of the "Good Samaritan" posed the question "what to do" in light of the question "who is my neighbor?" We should know that everyone we encounter on the path of life is our neighbor. Having reflected, and hopefully lived with greater concern as "to what to do?" for our neighbor (especially for those who are in need), we now are invited to consider "to what to do?" in choosing Jesus even over our own felt needs. Abraham and Mary in this Sunday's Scripture readings got it right. What do we need to do to get it right in welcoming and attending to the presence of Jesus in our lives on a daily basis? What are daily practices of prayer and quiet time with the Lord? The opening prayer for our weekend Mass could become a daily prayer. Let us pray...

*Show favor, O Lord, to Your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of Your Grace,
that, made fervent in hope, faith and
charity,
they may be ever watchful in keeping
Your commands.*

*Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
Who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing.”

Luke 10:41-42

YEAR OF FAITH 2012-2013

Luke 10:38-42

“He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.”
(Psalm 15)

- How often do you take on a job and then resent it? What can you do about that?
- How are you compassionate in responding to those with whom you do not agree, as Jesus was to Martha?
- How does Jesus’ support of Mary’s hunger for knowledge speak to you?

What is Conscience?

Conscience is the inner voice in a man that moves him to do good under any circumstances and to avoid evil by all means. It also is the ability to distinguish the one from the other. In the conscience God speaks to man. God is the one who becomes apparent in the conscience. St. Thomas Aquinas wrote, “Anything that is done against conscience is a sin,” however, Blessed John Paul II noted that “Christians have a great help for the formation of conscience in the Church and her Magisterium.” (From the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Faith) (Youcat #295)
