General Intercessions

*For all families who grieve because of divorce, that the pain, anger and sorrow they now feel might give way in time to forgiveness, mutual respect and a sense of peace.
Let us pray to the Lord.*

Family Perspectives

The gospel tells about a man who found a treasure and sold all he had to possess it. Today Jesus tells married couples and parents to TOTALLY INVEST in the real treasures in our life: our faith, spouse, children and grandchildren. Marriage is not a 50-50 proposition and parenting is not a part time job.

Read and Pray
the Scriptures Daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

As a young king, Solomon asks for wisdom. A parable is told about a pearl of great price. It is about the kingdom of God. What wisdom do we possess? Do we seek the kingdom of God above all else? These thoughts may be pondered as we mark the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Let us pray...

*O God, protector of those who hope in you,
without whom nothing has firm foundation,
nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us
and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide,
we may use the good things that pass
in such a way as to hold fast
even now to those that ever endure.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

Missionary in Our Midst

Next weekend, Reverend Father Joseph Viet will be with us at all the Masses to tell us about Carmelite missionary work. The Carmelites respond to the call to love one another through prayer and action by establishing ministries where there is the greatest need. They create humanitarian programs to relieve the suffering of the poor, minister to those in hospitals and prisons, provide education, and conduct spiritual and religious formation in almost 40 countries on five continents. Your generosity in the second collection next weekend to support the Carmelite Friars' missionary work will be greatly appreciated.
