the Scriptures Daily!

From the Pastor's Desk

In the Gospel for the Mass of Sixth Sunday of Easter, we hear that to love the Lord means listening to Jesus. If this is to be true, our actions are to demonstrate obedience to His word. Our love for the Lord is to find expression in our actions of love for others. Jesus promises not leave us alone. We put our trust in the Lord. He has and will send us the Holy Spirit to be our guide, our advocate. May our young people believe this with all their heart today as they receive the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation. Let us pray...

Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the risen Lord, and that what we relieve in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Collect, 6th Sunday of Easter (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

First Holy Communion

Blessings to Malina Costello as she receives First Holy Communion this weekend. Congratulations to Malina's parents and family on this happy occasion and with Malina, we thank them for their support, example and instruction in her preparation for the Sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me, because I live and you will live.

John 14:19

General Intercessions

We pray for single parents who struggle in their daily demands, that they will be guided by the Holy Spirit's wisdom to teach their children and keep them safe.

Amen.

Family Perspectives

Jesus reminds Christian families, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." We are to remind and exhort family members to do this, but always with gentleness and reverence. No matter what the problems, pray for the Holy Spirit's guidance and the way will be revealed to you.
