In two weeks it will be Easter! On this Fifth Sunday of Lent may we consider what still needs to be done to prepare our hearts for the renewal of our baptismal promises that we will together make at the Easter Mass we attend. What have you done to pray, to discipline yourself, to share with others? What can you still do? It is not too late. Have you celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for Easter? Cannot remember? Jesus is waiting to absolve you and give you His gift of peace. Let us pray...

*By Your help, we beseech You, Lord our God,
may we walk eagerly in that same charity
with which, out of love for the world,
Your Son handed himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, Fifth Sunday of Lent (Roman Missal, 3rd Edition)

In Your Charity

---

Please remember in your prayers, Mrs. Emily Herrick, mother of Deacon Raymond S. Herrick. May Emily and all our beloved deceased live forever in the joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation. Amen.

March 22, 2015
Fifth Sunday of Lent

Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life.

John 12:25

Family Perspectives

How can you live by dying? Letting go of control is one key to a loving relationship. This requires trust: trust in oneself and trust in others. If we don't let go of our need to control we don't experience the joy found in trusting ourselves to another and being completely accepted by that other. In the end we will lose what we are trying to control and hold onto – we can only have by letting go!

General Intercession

We pray for families divided by conflict, that they might find peaceful ways to resolve differences so that the needs of all might be addressed, we pray to the Lord.

Prayer for Occupations

We pray that the daily work of those who are in protective service occupations may transform our suffering world into a place of love, justice, and peace as they go about the work of protecting our community from all that would harm it. Amen.
