On this Sixth Sunday of Easter Jesus tells us that He has chosen us. We are to respond to this choice of the Lord for us by fulfilling His command to "love one another as He has loved us" (cf. John 15:12-16). How will you fulfill this commandment to love as the Lord has loved you? He does the choosing and has shown us how we are to love. Will we and again, how will we do this? Let us pray...

*Grant, almighty God,
that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion
these days of joy,
which we keep in honor of the risen Lord,
and that what we relive in remembrance
we may always hold to in what we do.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
who lives and reigns with You in the unity
of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

May 10, 2015
6th Sunday of Easter

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you.

John 15:11-12

Family Perspectives

Families who abide in love abide in God and God with them. Mothers teach Jesus' commandment to love to their children by their generous love and caring discipline for them each day. Thank your mother or stepmother for the love and care she has given you to improve your character.

General Intercession

In gratitude for our mothers, stepmothers and grandmothers living or deceased, that the Lord will bless them with joy and fulfillment for the many sacrifices that they have made for us.

Let us pray to the Lord.
