Pope's July Intention for Evangelization

Lapsed Christians: That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

Family Perspectives

Jesus tells us today: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me." What does Jesus mean? Only by putting him, the vine, at the center of our family, the branches, will we experience abundant life.

General Intercessions

*That families take the charity that begins at home into the neighborhood, community, work and school.
We pray to the Lord.*

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Jesus calls us to be totally committed to Him. Jesus, also, reminds us that our smallest act of kindness will be rewarded. In all ways, we are to say yes to Jesus as our Lord. Let us pray...

*O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray, that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Fortnight for Freedom

What is the Fortnight for Freedom? Each year dioceses around the country arrange special events to highlight the importance of defending religious freedom. The Fortnight for Freedom is from June 21, the vigil of the Feasts of Ss. John Fisher and Thomas More, to July 4, Independence Day. For more info and for daily reflections during the Fortnight for Freedom, visit www.dioceseofcleveland.org/freedom.

241 Years Old

The Fourth of July will see parades, picnics, fireworks and maybe a cake with two-hundred and forty-one candles to mark the birth of the United States of America. When our country came to exist there was no Internet, cell phones, telephones, radios or television sets of any size. Transportation was by foot or horse and the air was left to the birds. Ships powered by sails traversed the ocean to reach the New World. But the hope and dreams of the people then and now have not changed. It would take a revolution to bring them to be a reality. Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are what was and has always been uppermost in the hearts and minds of those who came, come and call this land home. Freedom and justice for all is a rallying cry of the patriot and citizen. Peace the fruit of the sacrifices made from the beginning by those who hold these truths as self-evident. This year the Fourth of July is a four-day weekend. There will be plenty of time to reflect on our Nation's history and future. Consider offering a prayer of thanks and praise for "...one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Fr. Terzano

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. There is always hope and pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, visit www.GreaterthanHeroin.com.

Peter's Pence

Thank you for your generous support of Peter's Pence Collection! As a parish, we collected $273.00. Our contributions will be combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need. It is not too late to give, visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections, and click on the "How to Give" link on the left. Thanks again for your kind prayers and support!
