FAITH AT WORK AT THE OZANAM CENTER

“What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things need for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has not works, is dead.” James 2: 14-17. We don’t preach to the people who need help at the Ozanam Center but we do help provide for their need of food and clothing. You can help us do that December 2, 2017, since that is our next turn. Hope to see you there at 9:00-12:00. Call Cathie or Jim at 330-467-5762 for further questions.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Sunday, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we should ask ourselves as we listen to the Gospel reading for the Mass...how will the King judge us...do we live for others or only for ourselves? Let us pray...

*Almighty, ever-living God, Whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of the universe,
grant, we pray,
that the whole creation, set free from slavery,
may render your majesty service
And ceaselessly proclaim your praise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen

Roman Missal, 3rd Edition*

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ,
King of the Universe

“Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison, and not minister to your needs?”
—Matthew 25:44

General Intercession

In this Thanksgiving week may we thank God for the many gifts we take for granted. Fill our hearts with gratitude for the people and blessings that fill our lives.
Let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

To whom much is given, much is expected. In today's gospel Jesus tell us that we must share our abundance with “the least”...the stranger, the prisoner, the hungry and the homeless. As we gather to give thanks this week, we must also ask ourselves how well we share with “the least”. Happiness is secured not by having but through sharing. Eternal happiness through sharing with the least.

In your Charity

Please remember Reverend Anthony R. Rebol. May Father Rebol and all who have died live forever in the joy of the Resurrection. May their family and friends be consoled. Amen.

May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen
