Read and pray the Scriptures daily.

In the Gospel reading for this Fifth Sunday of Lent, Jesus raises Lazarus. What tomb holds us bound? Who are we called to help set free, even as Jesus asked those who saw the miracle of Lazarus being raised to untie him. How is Christ calling us to deeper faith as he did his apostles, his friends, Martha and Mary, before he raised Lazarus who had died. Like his apostles and friends, do we completely trust Jesus, though we do not completely understand? Let us therefore pray...

*By your help, we beseech you, Lord our God,
may we walk eagerly in that same charity
with which, out of love for the world,
your Son handed himself over to death.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.*

Amen.

Congratulations, well done again!!!

Family Perspectives

In today's gospel, Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead. When Lazarus came out of the tomb, Jesus instructed his family and friends to untie the bandages that bound him. God still depends on us to free others so they might live. Who in your family is tied up by pride or entombed by grief or resentment? Hear Jesus' call to "unbind him," with care and compassion.

CSR Rice Bowls

We encounter Dita in Ethiopia, and see how her newfound entrepreneurial skills are providing three meals a day for her children—even during a devastating drought. What skills have you discovered this Lent that can be put to good use in building God's kingdom? Visit www.csricebowl.org for more information. Rice Bowls are available for you in the vestibule of the church.

April 2, 2017
Fifth Sunday of Lent
*So Jesus, perturbed again,
 came to the tomb...Jesus said,
 "Take away the stone."
 John 11:38-39*

General Intercessions

*For those who mourn, especially those who have lost a spouse or child, may they experience the healing compassion of friends and family.
 Let us pray to the Lord.*

Pope Francis's April Universal Intention

That young people may respond generously to their vocations and consider seriously offering themselves to God in the priesthood or consecrated life. Amen.

Catholic Relief Services

May God especially bless you for your generous support of The Catholic Relief Services Collection and for helping Jesus in disguise. Your contributions will make a difference for the poor and marginalized around the world. If you missed the collection, it's not too late to give! Just visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections and click on the "How to Give" link on the left.

MOS at Ozanam Center

*"What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has not works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things need for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has not works, is dead." James 2:14-17. We don't preach to the people who need help at the Ozanam Center but we do help provide for their need of food and clothing. You can help us, April 8, since that is our next turn. Hope to see you there at 9am-12pm. For more information please call Cathie or Jim at 330-467-5762.

Hi Everyone,
 The March 2017 statistics for the Fr. Hilkert Ozanam Center are as follows:

Food Pantry

Total number of people served was 881
 Total number of households served was 298
 Total number of children served was 305
 Total number of seniors served was 11

Clothing Bank

Total number of families served was 192
 Articles of clothing given away: 1850
 Winter coats given away: 63

Furniture Bank

Total number of clients served was 22
 Couches given away: 8
 Armchairs given away: 6
 Mattresses/box springs: 10
 Dressers given away: 4
 New cribs given away: 5
 Misc. given away: 42

For unknown reasons it was a little slow the first three weeks of this month. The last Saturday was busier and more like what we're used to. One unusual statistic for this month was that we gave away 5 new cribs. We'll sometimes go months without giving one away. Our winter coat giveaway ended last Saturday. This winter season we gave away 589 winter coats. As always, thank you for all you do.
