Family Perspectives

Too many families take too little time to talk about their faith. Try an Emmaus family journey. Talk about Jesus and your faith on the ride to church. Or, make time this week to meet with a trusted friend with whom you can talk and pray and even share a meal. Where two or more are gathered in His Name, Jesus is present in their midst.

Read and pray daily the Scriptures.

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Third Sunday of Easter with the disciples on the road to Emmaus, may we too recognize the Lord in the breaking of the bread (Luke 24:35). Let us pray...

May Your people exult for ever, O God, in renewed youthfulness of spirit, so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption, we may look forward in confident hope to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Collect, Third Sunday of Easter, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Brian and Kathryn Campbell, Congratulations
on the Baptism of your son,
Alexander Anthony Campbell.
Welcome Alexander
to the Christian Community!

In Your Charity

Remember in your prayers, Martin Prendergast, brother-in-law of Deacon Raymond L. Daul; Mrs. Doris Breck, mother of the Reverend Steven Breck, Pastor of St. Mary Magdalene, Willowick. May Martin, Doris and all who have gone before us in Faith now live forever in the Joy of the Resurrection and may their families and friends be granted consolation. Amen.

3rd Sunday of Easter

Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

- Luke 24:35

Pope's May Intention for Evangelization

Christians in Africa: That Christians in Africa, in imitation of the Merciful Jesus, may give prophetic witness to reconciliation, justice, and peace.

General Intercessions

May families hurting from divorce know the healing presence and peace of the Risen Jesus. We pray to the Lord.

Protecting God's Children

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious lay ecclesial ministers, or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service office at 216-334-2999 or at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

There's Hope

Many in our region are struggling with the pain and devastation caused by the heroin epidemic. As you've read in the paper and on the internet, and seen on the news, it's a painful struggle that is gripping our region and our state. There is always hope and there are pathways to find help. If you, or someone you know, is struggling with addiction or needs help in supporting a family member, go to www.GreaterthanHeroin.com. It's a website prepared by civic and faith leaders across our region to help show the way to hope and recovery.
