From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time we are asked to consider whether are actions reflect are words of commitment to the Lord as his disciples. Does the "yes" of our prayers and acts of worship correspond to doing the will of God in our actions? What is God's will for us personally? What do we find challenging as disciples of the Lord that find us saying yes but not following through? Let us pray...

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Collect, 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Pope's Universal Intention for October

Workers and the Unemployed: That all workers may receive respect and protection of their rights, and that the unemployed may receive the opportunity to contribute to the common good.

Let us pray to the Lord.

Amen.

October 1, 2017
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Which of the two did his father’s will?”
—Matthew 21:31

General Intercession

For families that live in ways which develop consciences that know right, wrong, justice and mercy, let us pray to the Lord.

Family Perspective

“What is your opinion?” was the trick question the Pharisees asked Jesus – in their attempt to trap him into saying something controversial. Jesus outsmarted them as he tried to get the rule makers and scorekeepers to see the bigger picture of God’s generous mercy. In families and on Facebook we would do well to invite one another to think and reason together rather than stirring up arguments with loaded opinions. Developing the virtues of understanding and empathy develop conscience and the ability to follow the Lord from our heart - much better than stirring up controversy and keeping score.

Bishop Perez Mass at Holy Family

Tickets available upon request for Mass at Holy Family Church, Stow, Ohio. The Mass is scheduled for Tuesday, October 24, 2017 at 7:00pm. Call 330-657-2631 to request a ticket.

There is Hope

October is “AWARENESS MONTH” in the Catholic Charities’ Heroin/Opioid Awareness Campaign. When addiction dominates a family, knowing where to seek help can seem elusive. This Fall awareness campaign’s monthly focus features bulletin blurbs and social media posts on how to break the silence, raise awareness of where to turn for help, and how communities can decrease opioid availability. Look for Catholic Charities supported panel forums near your parish in October. For information on raising awareness of how we can all have an impact, visit the Catholic Charities “Hope and Healing Beyond Heroin” page at www.ccdocle.org or the Greater Than Heroin initiative at www.greaterthanheroin.com.

Blanket Sunday “Covers” Many Needs

Next weekend is Blanket Sunday, sponsored by Diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society. Due to lack of storage space, we will gratefully accept your donation and do the shopping for you, making your money go even further with bulk purchases of blankets and other items needed by the homeless and disadvantaged. So “blanket” someone for the winter – and give yourself a warm feeling! You may also visit <http://www.svdpcle.org> to donate online.

In Appreciation for CCC

Thank you for your generosity in last week’s collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. Because of your support, millions of faithful will have the opportunity to deepen their faith through daily resources on the internet, television, and radio, and in print media. Remember, half of your donations are staying in our diocese to support local communication needs. To learn more about the important work supported by the collection please visit www.usccb.org and click “Catholic Communication Campaign.”

Natural Disaster Support

This weekend there is a second collection for those impacted by Hurricane Irma and recent natural disasters. These funds will be used in the affected areas to support humanitarian aid, assistance with long-term efforts to restore communities after widespread destruction, and for the pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church in US, Caribbean and Mexico. Checks should be made payable to “Mother of Sorrows” with the memo marked 2017 Calamities. Thank you for your generosity.
