From the Pastor's Desk

On this Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time the readings for Mass call us to love God with all that we are and our neighbor as ourselves. May we listen and faithfully fulfill these two great commandments. Pray we imitate the example of our Savior who gave His whole self for us. Let us pray...

*Almighty ever-living God,
Increase our faith, hope and charity,
And make us love what you command,
So that we may merit what you promise.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

All Saints Day

Though the Saints in Heaven do need our praise, in honoring them, we honor God and our inspired by their example of holiness and virtue. So many saints in Heaven! Not all are known. On November 1st beginning with October 31st, the vigil of "All Hallows", we honor all the Saints. The day is treated like a Sunday, it is a holy day...the saints in heaven do not need it but we do. It is a day of obligation and Masses at Mother of Sorrows will be at 4:15pm on Tuesday, October 31st and at 8:30am and 7:00pm on Wednesday, November 1st. On Thursday, November 2nd, Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day), we remember and pray for all the faithful departed. While not a day of obligation, many will choose to come to Mass. Masses on All Souls Day will be at 8:30am, 12Noon, and 7:00pm. In addition there will be prayer service at Mater Dolorosa Cemetery (Route 303, next Happy Days Visitor Center), following the 8:30am Mass. 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, “Teacher, which commandment of the law is the greatest?”

Matthew 22:34-30

General Intercession

For families affected by addiction or abuse, that they will find help, freedom from fear and a new beginning. Let us pray to the Lord.

Pope Francis’ Intention for November

Evangelization of Christians in Asia

That Christians in Asia, bearing witness to the Gospel in word and deed, may promote dialogue, peace, and mutual understanding, especially with those of other religions.

Amen.

Family Perspective

Today Jesus tells us love of God and neighbor are two parts of the greatest commandment. Loving families do both. They express their love of God as a family knowing this will help them love each other. What energizes their love? Loving God through loving people.

St. Michael, the Archangel defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Priesthood Sunday

There are almost 80 enthusiastic young men seeking to serve the Lord who are studying at the Center of Pastoral Leadership (Borromeo Seminary, St. Mary Seminary Graduate School of Theology), Wickliffe Ohio. Our own seminarian, Alex Spenik, is in his second year of graduate studies there. The Church’s annual observance of National Priesthood Sunday inspires awareness of the gift of the priesthood of Jesus Christ and of the joy that comes from discerning one’s particular vocation within the Kingdom. Pray many more from our parish of Mother of Sorrows and other parishes will say yes to the call to the vocation of priesthood. Amen.
