From the Pastor's Desk

This week's Insert "Take Five" October 20, 2019
"We're stronger together"

"Most things are easier when shared. We stick to the diet if our spouse commits to it. We exercise with more discipline if a friend meets us at the gym. Working late is less lonely if others in the office agree to put in the extra hours. Is it any wonder Moses can raise his hands in prayer longer if he has company in his exhausting vigil? As the church observes World Mission Sunday, we recall the great commission we share to bring good news to all the earth. Together, we can bring light to all the dark places." Let us pray ...

*Almighty and ever-living God,
Grant that we may always conform our wills to yours
And serve your majesty in sincerity of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.*

Collect, The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time,
Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Family Perspective

The widow in today's gospel was successful because she was persistent. Children tend to be naturally persistent; they will repeat the same request over and over until an exhausted parent gives in, and then later will feel guilty for not being stronger. The gospel encourages us to pray always and not lose heart. Our challenge is to be a good – not perfect – parent.

Please pray for...
