

From the Pastor's Desk

On this Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time we are asked to consider whether our actions reflect our words of commitment to the Lord as his disciples. Does the "yes" of our prayers and acts of worship correspond to doing the will of God in our daily lives? What is God's will for us personally? What do we find challenging, as disciples of the Lord, that find us saying yes but not truly following through? Let us pray...

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

Collect, 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Roman Missal, 3rd Edition

Family Perspective

“What is your opinion?” was the trick question the Pharisees asked Jesus – in their attempt to trap him into saying something controversial. Jesus outsmarted them as he tried to get the rule makers and scorekeepers to see the bigger picture of God’s generous mercy. In families and on Facebook we would do well to invite one another to think and reason together rather than stirring up arguments with loaded opinions. Developing the virtues of understanding and empathy develop conscience and the ability to follow the Lord from our heart - much better than stirring up controversy and keeping score.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.
