Bible Study. Since our Bible Study will be taking a break for the summer, here is part of a reflection provided by Greg Sunter and liturgyhelp.com. "The message to not be afraid is as much for the original intended audience of the gospel as it was for the apostles. The community for whom this gospel was written were on the verge of being "squeezed out" and forced into secret. The passage reminds them to have courage and to have the courage of their convictions; to shout from the housetops their message, not whisper it in darkness. It is a reminder of the abundant love of God who cares for them and sees all their efforts to continue to live out the message and ministry of Jesus. It is equally a message for us, today. We are called to continue the spread of the gospel message; continuing the work of those early Christian communities, the Twelve and Jesus himself."

Congratulations. The following Saint Ignatius High School students received academic achievements for the second semester of the 2022-2023 school year. Well done!

*"So do not be afraid;
 you are worth more than many sparrows.
 Everyone who acknowledges me before others
 I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.
 But whoever denies me before others,
 I will deny before my heavenly Father."
 - Mt 10:31-33*

Dear People of God,

I am on vacation this weekend. Father McCann will have the 5 PM Mass at Saint Victor and Father Hengle will have the 9 AM and 11 AM Masses.

I will be heading off to Belleville to visit my friend Bishop Edward K. Braxton, the Bishop Emeritus of that very large diocese. The Diocese of Belleville covers a vast segment of the State of Illinois. Much of it is very rural, agricultural and spread out.

The Cathedral of Saint Peter in Belleville is immense, dwarfing the Cathedral of Saint John the Evangelist in Cleveland; in fact, it is even larger than Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago. I have had the honor of being there many times in order to help celebrate important milestones in the ministry of Bishop Braxton.

I will have a few stops on the way back, including a visit to dear friends, Rick and Gretchen in the Toledo Area. I'm sure many parishioners would remember Rick as the Chair of our Finance Council. We have remained good friends and get together at least a couple of times each year.

I enjoy very much viewing pictures of parishioners and friends who are visiting exotic locations. As much as I appreciate their wonderful trips, I am pretty much a home-oriented person, and a simple road trip through the countryside of neighboring states is fairly satisfactory for me. And as nice as it is to get away, it is always better to get home.

I have some time lined up in August to get away as well, and I'm considering a road trip to St. Andrew-on-Hudson, in Hyde Park, New York to visit the grave of the great Jesuit priest and theologian Pierre Teilhard de Chardin who has always been an inspiration to me.

I am thankful to Father McCann and Father Hengle for the chance to get away. Oh, and that August trip, that will be during the Annual Missionary Cooperative Appeal; and there will be more on that later.

Sincerely,

Allen F. Corrigan

Protecting God's Children. The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers, or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Services Office at 216-334-2999 or via email at responseservices@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior.

MASS INTENTION REQUESTS. Due to the bulletin publication deadline, and other factors, please submit requests for Mass Intentions two months in advance. There are several steps in processing these requests, some of which entail delays of various lengths.

PLEASE SHARE YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS. If you are not receiving weekly email newsletters, please contact the Saint Victor office (stvictor@roadrunner.com). We are sending out detailed updates on the leadership transition for Saint Victor and Mother of Sorrows. Please make sure you are receiving our weekly email newsletter and also check your "spam" or "promotions" folders and make sure you approve the acorrigan@roadrunner.com and stvictor@roadrunner.com. There is more news that cannot fit into the weekly bulletin.

PLEASE CONSIDER FAITH DIRECT FOR WEEKLY CONTRIBUTIONS. "Faith Direct," our eGiving portal, is the safest and simplest way to support both Saint Victor and Mother of Sorrows. You can access it at <https://membership.faithdirect.net/OH1017> and there are two buttons for "RESTRICTED" contributions to Mother of Sorrows. "HOLD" on Contributions of Clothing. Please hold on to your gently used and new clothing until September or donate to the charity of your choice. Our Saint Vincent de Paul Chapter is not able to accept any clothing until Fall. Please do not put any in the box. Instead, we will be collecting paper products and soap products for local families in need. Watch for signs. As always, thanks for your generosity and support.

Anyone wishing to contribute ready-made shawls can drop them off at the Saint Victor's Parish Office. To request a shawl, please contact the Saint Victor's Parish Office at 330-659-6591.
