The Feast of the Holy Family

GOSPEL MEDITATION:

December 28, 2025

The Holy Family of Jesus,
Mary and Joseph

Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23

When I was ten, my dad gathered our family around the table in small-town Vermont and told us we were moving to the big desert city of Phoenix, Arizona. We were leaving behind family, friends, and everything familiar. None of us knew what to expect.

But something beautiful happened. As we made the move together, our family grew closer. In retrospect, I'm amazed at my parents' courage to go on that adventure. Even as a kid I realized our family found, in that challenge, a deeper unity and mutual love.

In today's Gospel, Joseph is told: "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee..." (Matthew 2:13, 20). First to Egypt, then later to Israel. The Holy Family is frequently challenged to move and change, to adapt to God's will for them, in order to find safety in the midst of threat. It's not just an idiosyncratic story about survival. It's a spiritual pattern for all of us. Every Christian family is called to be a kind of sanctuary, especially in a world full of noise, busyness, and fear.

May I make a practical application for us? The Lord's Day, Sunday, is perhaps the most practical way we imitate this dynamic we see in Joseph and his family. Sunday is not meant to be just like every other day, filled with errands and stress. It's meant to be a day set apart; a holy "escape" into rest, worship, joy, and peace. A day to rise, take your family, and flee, into God's presence.

THANK YOU TO MOTHER OF SORROWS

A heartfelt "thank you" to Deacon Yoho and the parishioners of Mother of Sorrows from Camp Christopher. As most of you know, Camp Christopher is operated by Catholic Charities and features 160 acres of rocks and streams, day and overnight camping, hiking, horses, canoeing and Environmental Education. This summer, I inquired upon Deacon Yoho if he had a source for crucifixes, the kind which hang in each cabin and remind us why our Camp exists. Over the years, some have broken or gone missing. Thanks to Deacon Will's coordination and your generosity, all of our cabins once again have a visible reminder of Our Lord's immense love for us. I am grateful. We are grateful.

May God bless you,
Larry Furman, Property Manager,
Camp Christopher
